Trolley Car Run by Strikebreakers Bumps Into Automobile—Funeral of Mrs. William E. Wheeler—Representative and Mrs. Crandall Note Wedding Anniversary.

At 3 o'clock Monday afternoon the trolley car eastbound ran into a five-passenger touring car, No. 54225. The party in the car were New York people and did not take enough precaution in stopping the car. The motor man was one of the strikebreakers, with Perkins as guide. Not much damage was done to the car, but the party was pretty angry over the affair.

FUNERAL

The funeral of Mrs. Sarah Stark Wheeler, widow of William E. Wheeler, was held from her home on the New London road Sunday afternoon at 2 o'clock and was largely attended. Rev. Welcome E. Bates, pastor of the Union Baptist church, conducted the services. Mrs. Wheeler being a member of the Baptist church for over half a century. The members of Williams Woman's Relief corps, of which she was a member, attended in a body. Burial was in Elm Grove cemetery. There were beautiful flowers.

Sermon to Trolleyman

Sunday evening Rev. W. H. Dunnack, pastor of the Methodist church, invited the trolley men to attend the Sunday evening service, and about 30 turned out in a body. Mr. Dunnack gave a very interesting talk on "The Strike," advising the men, as a body of men trying to do what was right, to stand for justice. When the men had reached the sidewalk all voted to give Mr. Dunnack a vote of thanks for his words of encouragement, and a commendation was read to convey thanks to Mr. Dunnack. The trolley men have had the sympathy of the community here, who are proud of the way they conduct themselves on the street during these trying hours.

Tin Wedding Anniversary

Representative and Mrs. Charles T. Crandall kept open house Monday afternoon from 5 to 8 and from 8 until 11 in the evening in celebration of the tenth anniversary of their wedding. No cards were issued, but all relatives and friends were invited to call, and a large number assembled. Refreshments were served and Mr. and Mrs. Crandall received the good wishes of many friends and were presented many beautiful gifts. The house was attractively decorated, red, green and white being the predominant colors. Odd Fellows' Memorial Sunday. Invitations have been received signed by Noble Grand Frank Kupper and Recording Secretary Jesse B. Stanton by the members of Stonington lodge, No. 25, L. O. E. F., to attend the memorial exercises to be held in the Methodist church Sunday morning, June 11. The lodge members will meet at Masonic temple at 10 o'clock, wearing white gloves and badges, and will march in a body to the church, where the graves of the departed members will be decorated. The Mystic Rebekah lodge, No. 56, I. O. E. F., will also attend the morning service in a body, and in the afternoon the noble grand, Mrs. Etta Belle Fish, and vice grand, Miss Abbie Fish, will go to Elm Grove cemetery and decorate the grave of Mrs. Nellie Potter, the only member of the order who has died since the lodge was organized.

Short Paragraphs. Mr. and Mrs. Conrad Kretzer, Mr. and Mrs. Ernest A. Bliven and Ernest Dayton Bliven were in Plainfield on Sunday, guests of their aunt, Mrs. Julia Dean.

BAND, PARADE AND SUPPER. Village Burns Red Fire Because Trolley Strike is Ended.

Word was received in Mystic Tuesday morning that the trolley strike was over. Tuesday evening the Mystic Cornet band headed a parade and marched through the principal street and red fire was burned on all the main streets, after which the motor men and conductors were invited to the G. A. R. hall, where the ladies had a supper prepared for them. A smoke talk was enjoyed. The men will start to work this (Wednesday) morning. James Gordon Bennett celebrated his 86th birthday Tuesday at his home on Reynolds Hill. He was born in Deep River in 1830, but has resided in Mystic for over 25 years. He is a veteran of the Civil war, and when the first call came left his home and went to New London, where he enlisted in

FEAR OF WESTERN ELECTION

One-sided as Usual, Republicans in Majority—Charles J. Butler Elected Chairman of Newly Created Highway Commission—Adelbert Sisson, Raiser of Money Orders, Given Five Years in Atlanta Penitentiary.

As a rule, the republican majority is so large in Western, and nomination means election, there is not that interest in town elections that prevails in other towns where the voting strength is nearly equally divided. The moderator, town clerk, six of the seven councilmen, the treasurer and collector, overseer of the poor and the representative district officers are all republicans. There was no real contesting democratic for any of these places, although some republicans had announced their intention to vote and work for the election of Triandam D. Babcock, democratic, as against Maurice W. Flynn, the republican nominee for first councilman, which meant the presidency of the town council for Mr. Flynn. He secured eight terms in this body, with record unblemished, has always been a staunch republican, and in all former elections polled a large vote when he was a candidate. Why advance notice was given that republicans were to bolt the regular caucus committee, and with no valid reason stated was just a bit mystifying and gave ground for the belief that the opposition was born of prejudice.

The republican nominee for assessor and for school visitor were on the ticket for a first time, and the voting for highway commissioners in town meeting was a new feature. This commission was created at the last session of the general assembly and the commissioners were elected for a first Tuesday. Charles J. Butler, who was elected for the term of three years, was the chairman of the board. It is his first venture into active local politics. Mr. Butler was for a quarter century connected with the Western postoffice and served two terms as postmaster. He was recently retired to make way for John A. Farrell, a democrat.

The polls opened at 9 o'clock and closed at 5, with these election officials in charge. First representative district—J. B. Crandall, moderator; John J. Dunn, clerk; Everett A. Kingsley, Carl E. Burdick, Edward A. Farrell, Charles L. Clark, supervisors; William Culley, officer. Second representative district—Bernard J. Swan, moderator; Lewis Stanton, clerk; Russell L. Stocum, James A. Dunn, Howard Swan, Bernard J. Christie, supervisors; Adam Archie, officer.

The vote polled was unusually light only 87, out of about 1,400 votes being cast. In the first district there was a total of 318 and 132 straight republican and 27 straight democratic tickets. The total vote in the second district, 368, 142 straight republican, 16 straight democratic. There were 159 split tickets in the first district and 110 in the second.

The result of the ballot follows:

Adelbert Sisson is a product of Western and commenced his criminal career here, specializing in raising money orders. He was employed as a clerk at the Dixon house and many years ago purchased a $1 money order at the local postoffice and raised the amount. He attempted to cash the order at the bank, but the cashier, Mr. Casey, was suspicious and disappeared for several days. He was arrested by Deputy Sheriff William Casey and sentenced to prison by the United States court sitting in Providence. After his discharge he continued his operations and served several prison terms.

Sisson was before Judge Arthur L. Brown in the United States district court in Providence Monday, charged with a violation of section 218 of the criminal code by altering three money orders. He was sentenced to serve five years in the federal penitentiary at Atlanta and to pay a fine of $1,000.

Company G, First Connecticut volunteers.

Civil War Veteran 86. After a few months he went into the navy and was on the battleship North Carolina during the rest of the war. When he left home he left his wife with four small children, the youngest only one day old. During the past year he and his aged wife have had the misfortune to have their home burn to the ground, without having any insurance. Kind friends came to his aid and his wife brought him many blessings. He is a member of Williams post, G. A. R., and a faithful member of the M. E. church. Many friends called Tuesday to tender him congratulations.

Short Paragraphs.

The monthly business meeting and social of the Everett league was held in the Methodist church Tuesday evening. After the business session a social was enjoyed and refreshments were served.

Ernest A. Bliven is ill at his home, threatened with pneumonia.

Earl Walbridge is visiting in Hart-

Sisson has already served a term at Atlanta for a similar offense, and in imposing sentence, Judge Brown said: "I can see only one way to stop you committing this offense. That is to put you where you cannot commit it. You are simply a persisting criminal, who behaves himself well in prison." The latter part of the judge's remark referred to a statement made by Assistant United States Attorney Peter Cannon, who informed the court that Sisson had a good record as a convict.

The Rhode Island Baptist Sunday School convention will be held on Flag Day, June 14, and the Sunday schools of Western will be represented. The first two hours of the session will be devoted to the customary greetings and the reports of officers, followed with seven minute addresses by members of the executive board. The first of these will be by Allan Peacock, superintendent of Shawmut Baptist Sunday school, and brother of Rev. Joseph L. Peacock of Western, on the topic: Jesus and the Outcast; How to Get the Wayward to Enter Our Sunday Schools.

At the annual meeting of the Rhode Island library association held at Wickford, officers were elected as follows: Joseph Peacock, president; William D. Goddard of Pawtucket, first vice president; Miss Grace F. Leonard of Providence, second vice president; Miss Edna D. Rice, of Pawtucket, secretary; Lawrence M. Shaw, of Providence, treasurer; Miss Amy Wilbur of Providence, recorder; the above-named and Harold T. Dougherty, of Newton, G. L. ident; Miss Mary Cooke of Providence, executive committee; Herbert O. Brigham, Mrs. Mary E. S. Root of Providence, Miss Hazel Todd of Pawtucket, committee on relations with the state board of education.

Judge Edward M. Burke in the Western probate court gave a hearing Tuesday afternoon, on the petition of the widow of Charles D. Chapin for the allowance of furniture, and to which she is entitled, she alleges, under the statutes. Former Governor James H. Higgins appeared for the widow and Judge Nathan B. Lewis, executor of the estate, opposed the petition. Governor Higgins stated that $16,946.10 was the inventory value of the estate, which was clearly solvent, and any allowance that the court might make would not be prejudicial to the interest of creditors, who were further secured by valuable real estate. Governor Higgins said the furniture had been sold and the title of purchasers was not to be touched, but that the widow was entitled to the furniture realized from the sale, as the furniture legally belonged to her after her husband's death, even if they had lived apart. He said the widow was not required to file petition for the possession of the furniture within any specified time, but within a reasonable time. The fact that Mr. Chapman had not been living with her husband did not impair her rights, and if Mr. Chapman had maintained a winter and a summer home, it would be entitled to the furniture in both homes. The furniture sale realized $14,725.85. Mr. Chapman died in January, 1915, and the furniture was sold March 28, 29 and 30, and the widow's petition was filed April 18, 1916.

Judge Burke reserved his decision. In the estate of J. Frank Segar, Judge Herbert W. Rathbun, who was appointed commissioner two weeks ago, made report on a claim for $11,525.40, the interest on a claim of $10,000 with interest from January 1, 1916. The report was approved and payment ordered. In the estate of Ruth Geary Wildes, who died in Danvers, Mass., who left $25,000, Judge Rathbun appeared for an infant child. The husband of deceased was appointed administrator in bonds with $500.

David W. Roche was appointed administrator of the estate of Katherine Ruth Bonal. In the estate of L. Angenette Cottrell, discharge of guardianship of Charles P. Cottrell was received and ordered filed with the estate.

At the annual meeting of the Pawtucket Fire district, held in the P. S. Buss House, Monday evening, George M. Martin presided and Dr. William A. Hillard was clerk. Chief Engineer Harold H. Buss, treasurer, and Charles J. Norris submitted their annual reports. The total receipts were $13,979.02, and expenses $12,477.56, leaving a balance of $1,501.47.

It was voted to purchase 300 feet of hose and a motor pump, and a battery storage system for the fire district. It was voted to extend the fire district to a point below the village of Clarksville, so as to give fire protection to houses on the land known as Dodge farm.

A three mill tax was voted, the same as a year ago. All the officers were re-elected.

URGE GOV. MAJOR AS WILSON'S RUNNING MATE

Delegates to the Democratic national convention, opening in St. Louis June 14, are being urged to support Governor Elliott W. Major of Missouri for vice president on the ticket with President Woodrow Wilson. Missouri democrats have undertaken an active canvass in Governor Major's behalf. This fact is arousing considerable interest, because the friends of Vice President Marshall are understood to have regarded his renomination as probable, if not a foregone conclusion. The Missouri candidate has been formally endorsed by the democratic state convention of the state. Major of Missouri Means a Majority in the Middle West has been adopted as the slogan of the governor's boomers. Governor Major, who is fifty years old, is a friend of Speaker Clark. He hails from Bowling Green, the speaker's home city, and studied law in Mr. Clark's office. He was elected to the state senate in 1896, attorney general of the state in 1908 and governor in 1912.
